COURSE AIMS:

This course is specifically designed to provide safety auditor training for suitable candidates to satisfy one of the pre-requisites for becoming a Registered Safety Auditor under the Factories and Industrial Undertakings (Safety Management) Regulation. The overall course aims are (i) to develop a thorough understanding of the concepts, principles, methods and techniques of modern safety management and safety auditing, covering the key elements of a safety management system, and (ii) to familiarise students with details of safety audit procedures and practice, and to facilitate them to develop their competence and skills in conducting safety audits for assessment of the effectiveness of safety management system.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

This course is designed for occupational safety and health practitioners who have achieved the status of Registered Safety Officer under the Factories and Industrial Undertakings (Safety Officers and Safety Supervisors) Regulations. Entry is also open to candidates with appropriate tertiary qualifications and relevant professional experience, or those designated by their organisations as auditor candidates or safety reviewers.

STRUCTURE AND MODE OF STUDY:

This is a 108-hour study course covering ten months and consisting of two main stages of training:

Stage 1: Classroom Training (including site visits) (78 hr)	Stage 2: Audit Project (30 hr of field study)
Duration: October 2013 to January 2014 Classroom training is normally held in the PolyU Main Campus on Monday & Wednesday evenings from 6:45 pm to 9:45 pm covering the theory part of Safety Management & Safety Audit. 2 site visits will be arranged on Saturday afternoons.	Duration: February to August 2014 Audit project is required to be completed within 7 months covering the stages of baseline audit and follow-up audit. Oral presentation will be held by the end of the course.

Students are eligible to use the Pao Yue-kong Library of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University during the period of study.

SATS OPERATOR:

The SATS operator, Industrial Centre (IC), has extensive experience in offering and teaching occupational safety and health (OSH) courses since the year 1979. With over 30 years of OSH training, IC has had good contacts with industries and OSH associations and societies. For this particular course in safety auditor training, it has full support from the Society of Accredited Safety Auditors. Members of the Society (qualified as Registered Safety Auditor) and members of the IC safety professional staff will be actively involved in teaching this course and providing project supervision. This is the 17th intake since its first launch in October 1997.
